6 PUNE TIMES, THE TIMES OF INDIA

A real motivation

Pune based motivational speaker Minocher Patel was invited to speak as a Thought Leader at the Global Indian Business Meet (GIBM) 2012 held at the Marriott Marquis, Times Square, Manhattan in New York City recently. GIBM is an annual international conference for Indian leaders from across the world.

Patel spoke on The Power of Happy Leadership at the meet. Some other esteemed speakers who were invited as thought leaders were physician-writer Deepak Chopra, economist Lord Meghnad Desai and professor Tarun Khanna, dean of Harvard Business School.

The numerous awards Patel has received speak volumes about Patel's effective motivational skills. Early this year, he was conferred upon the the KATHA UK — Global Excellence Award at the House of Lords, London for being one of the country's most effective and entertaining motivational speaker of recent times. In the past too Patel has received the Indira Gandhi Priyadarshani Award and the National Achievement Award for Excellence in Education and Training in New Delhi.

Along with Patel's transformational training programs for the corporate and education sector, he also conducts one on one image coaching programs for CEOs, industrialists, celebrities and
