

Police academy

Minocher Patel, corporate trainer from Pune and Dr George Judah, director, Rosary Institute of Management, conducted a four day training programme at the Maharashtra Police Training Academy in Nashik, in the second week of October. The training explored various aspects of self development including personality development, personal grooming, perception management, inter personal skills, public speaking and presentation skills. It was conducted for 131 police sub inspectors and five deputy superintendents of the police force. The training session brought together officers from all over Maharashtra.

Contributed by Sunanda, Ahmed and Shehnaz

The series of live acts at the 10 guys with st with their s lead by Des Schubert V (drums), V

Silken act

tha (vocals), will play once again. the Eagles, Shania Twain and oth Events and sponsored by Londer 1000 Oaks, on Wednesday, Octo

LU